

Gosfield School

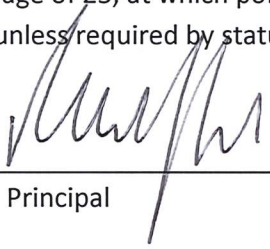

Pupil Sanctions Record Policy

At Gosfield School a record is kept by the Assistant Principal Pastoral of the following offences, which are entered onto your child's pupil record:

- Alcohol abuse
- Bullying, including racist, sexist or discriminatory bullying
- Child on Child Abuse
- Drug abuse
- Fraud
- Gambling
- Improper behaviour towards a member of staff or another pupil
- Malicious damage
- Persistent disruptive behaviour
- Physical assault/threatening behaviour
- Racist abuse
- Sexual harassment
- Sexual misconduct
- Theft
- Using pornography
- Serious violence
- Improper use of the internet or social media platforms
- Any other activity that is illegal under English law
- Sharing or distribution of indecent images
- AI-Generated Deepfakes: Using AI tools, apps, or software to alter, manipulate, or create realistic fake images, audio recordings, or videos of students, teachers, or staff members.

The sanctions that will be imposed are set out in the School's policy on Behaviour, Discipline and Exclusions Policy including Rewards and Sanctions. Parents' attention is drawn to our Complaints Policy.

It is the policy of Gosfield School to keep all our pupil sanctions records securely until your child has reached the age of 25, at which point the records will be deleted. They will not be disclosed to any third party, unless required by statutory regulations.
